

Obituary

Born: Saturday, July 17, 1954

Died: Tuesday, January 15, 2019

Debbie Marlene Frye, so loved by many, our sister, friend and aunt has unfortunately passed away on Jan 15, 2019. She was born in Tennessee in 1954, moved to Norfolk Virginia as a child than moved to Atlanta Ga. where she graduated with honors in High School and College. Debra started her career at Bridgestone tire co. and managed the entire state of Georgia for 10 years. She loved the beach so much that she moved to Island Estates in Clearwater and opened her own swimwear boutique and was successful for many years.. While living on the beach, she soon discovered that real estate was her passion and for 29 years fulfilled her dreams. Deb loved helping people and was an angle to all that knew her, we loved her and she will always be in our hearts forever. Her greatest contribution was caring for her mother and there incredible bond. Debra is survived by her sisters Susan Zanwood and Sharon Polito & family, brothers, Gary Frye & family, Randy Frye, 4 nephews, 1 niece and 2 great nieces. Debra had many wonderful friends who she loved so dearly, Pat & Dan, Carol & Ed, Jeff, Sam, Larry. Paula and so many more and god bless you all, we thank you for your love, support and prayers you shared with Deb, she was an angel. Deb will be remembered in all of our hearts she touched forever... God will bless her now and us forever more...
